SAYS IT IS ILLEGAL

Prosecutor Kellogg's Opinion of Standard Oil Company.

TRUST WAS NOT DISSOLVED

Government's Counsel Believes That the Oil Combine Now Is Owned by the Same Men Who Controlled the Original Concern.

New York, Oct. 9.—From statements culled from ledgers and books found in the offices of the Standard Oil company, Frank B. Kellogg, counsel for the United States government, succeeded in placing on Tuesday's record of federal proceedings against the oil combine the processes and stages through which the combine passed in its changes from the old Standard Oil trust to the present Standard Oil Company of New Jersey. Out of the maze of figures developed in a voluminous mass from the company's books and from testimony given by Clarence G. Fay, assistant auditor of the Standard, called as a witness Friday, the government's counsel says he believes he has proved the federal allegation that the Standard is an illegal corporation that by devious devices has maintained its entity and that it is under the same ownership as when it was formed.

Mr. Kellogg says he is of the opinion that notwithstanding that the government was unable to discover the transfer books and stock ledgers of the liquidating trustees, the evidence adduced Tuesday shows that the so-called oil trust only affected to dissolve under the order of the Ohio courts in 1892 and that its direction is still held by those who had to do with the formation of the Standard Oil trust.

Statements submitted Tuesday showed in brief that at the inception of the Standard Oil trust in 1882 there was $70,000,000 in trust certificates issued for stock of various companies which entered into the combine. In the trust period from 1882 to 1892 a stock dividend of $15,000,000 was declared and this with other stocks issued for plant purchases brought the total capitalization of the Standard up to $97,250,000. As a result of a decision of the supreme court of Ohio forbidding the trustees from voting the trust certificates there was a resolution passed directing that the trust be dissolved.

Consolidated With the Standard.

Mr. Fay read a statement in the record Tuesday showing that the day following the passage of that resolution sixty-four subsidiary companies were consolidated with the Standard Oil company of New Jersey and nineteen other subsidiaries of the trust. Seven months later, on Nov. 30, 1892, the witness read from statements, there were 494,619 trust certificates presented for cancellation and to the holders were given their pro rata shares in the twenty subsidiary companies which then made up the trust. There were also offered for cancellation two months later some 20,000 trust certificates. There was a lapse of over four years before another certificate was presented for cancellation.

Mr. Kellogg sought to show that those who held control of the trust, with the exception of a few friends, were the only ones who liquidated.

their trust certificates and that, by liquidating only a majority of the total certificates outstanding which they owned, they continued their direction of the trust by voting a majority of the stock in the subsidiary companies. He also tried to show that those who liquidated their trust certificates and took the stocks of the subsidiaries were John D. Rockefeller, William Rockefeller, H. M. Flagler, Benjamin Brewster, J. D. Archbold, H. H. Rogers, W. H. Tilford, C. W. Harkness, estate of C. B. Jennings, Emma Auchincloss, estate of Charles Pratt and O. H. Payne.

For the first time the profits and dividends of the Standard Oil trust from its inception in 1882 to 1891, were made public Tuesday. The profits of the Standard Oil trust, as stated by Mr. Fay, were as follows:

In 1882, $12,388,507; 1883, $11,231,790; 1884, $7,778,205; 1885, $8,382,935; 1886, $15,350,787; 1887, $14,026,590; 1888, $12,757,727; 1889, $14,845,201; 1890, $19,181,470; 1891, $16,331,886.

The dividends declared by the Standard Oil trust from 1882 to 1891 were spread on the records as follows:

In 1882, $3,695,253; 1883, $1,268,086;

1884, $4,288,842; 1885, $7,479,223; 1886,

$7,226,452; 1887, $8,463,327; 1888, $10,

236,277; 1889, $10,620,630; 1890, $11,

200,000; 1891, $11,648,826.

TAFT AT SHANGHAI.

Secretary of War Cordially Greeted by the Chinese.

Shanghai, Oct. 9.—Secretary of War William H. Taft and the members of his party arrived here Tuesday on the steamer Minnesota, which is conveying him from Japan to Manila. The Chinese and the foreign residents of Shanghai united in giving the distinguished visitor a hearty welcome.

In the afternoon Mr. Taft dedicated the building of the Young Men's Christian association. He made a brief address in which he said that the work of the association among the Chinese was a great step in the interests of civilization, and he was followed by several Chinese officials who spoke in approval of the undertaking.

At 4 o'clock in the afternoon the secretary was given an elaborate reception by the Chinese residents. This function was out of doors in a native garden. The promoters of the reception were prominent Chinese merchants representing forty-five of the guilds formerly in the boycott movement against American manufacturers.

Speeches of welcome were made in English by local Chinese business men and the representative of the viceroy. The Chinamen emphasized the cordial relations existing today between China and the United States, saying the friendship of America had been evidenced by sending relief to the famine sufferers, the support of schools and hospitals and the waiving by the United States of her part of the Boxer indemnity. In reply, Secretary Taft thanked the Chinese for their reception, which he said gratified him as an evidence of their friendliness toward the American people and government. At the conclusion of his address the secretary was presented with a handsome silver punch bowl.

This reception marked an epoch in the matter of the status of women in China, for Chinese women of aristocratic families were present at the reception and even presided at the tables and served refreshments. This is the first time such a thing has happened in China.

The American residents gave a banquet in the secretary's honor in the evening. At this entertainment the foreign consuls and a number of prominent foreign business men were present.

Gives Astounding Details.

New York, Oct. 9.—Anthony N. Brady told the public service commission Tuesday some astounding details of a deal whereby he turned over the Wall street ferry railroad properties to the Metropolitan Securities company for $965,000. Although not a rail was laid this sum was paid to him, $250,000 as a consideration of franchises he had secured and the balance to be prepaid by him to others designated by the Metropolitan interests.

Policeman Shot and Killed.

Cincinnati, Oct. 9.—Policeman Anton Bachman, aged fifty-six years, was shot and killed at Sixth and Park streets by Peter Garrity, aged thirty years, a plumber. Garrity, it is said, was intoxicated and shot the policeman apparently without provocation. Garrity was arrested.

AGAINST LUMBERMEN

Federal Grand Jury at Minneapolis Finds True Bills.

CHARGED WITH CONSPIRACY

Prominent Men Accused of Conspiring to Defraud by Use of the Mails. Waged a Campaign Against the Mail Order Houses.

Minneapolis, Oct. 9.—As a result of its investigation of the so-called "little black book" the federal grand jury has returned nineteen indictments against well known lumbermen and officers of the Northwestern Lumbermen's association, charging conspiracy to defraud by the use of the mails.

The black book plan was pursued by lumbermen and other opponents of mail order houses and provided simply that the victims of the device were to be made to answer futile correspondence and send out innumerable catalogues, all with no result in trade.

The penalty of the offense is a fine of not more than $10,000 or imprisonment for not more than two years, or both.

A separate indictment was also returned against Theodore S. McLaughlin for misuse of the mails. It contained four counts and the penalty is a fine of not more than $500 for each offense or imprisonment for eighteen months, or both.

Another phase of the case is the discovery of letters at the Thomas residence indicating that they had been engaged in the performance of illegal operations upon society women.

M. Samary, a well known antiquary of Paris, said that there was in existence a great syndicate of art thieves engaged in robbing churches and museums all over Europe. All the spoils, he said, were sold to American collectors, who paid such high prices that the risk was well worth the while.

The scheme to defraud, as charged in the indictment, was that the alleged conspirators, knowing that certain catalogue houses sold lumber and mill supplies by catalogue system and that the catalogues cost the firms on the average of about $1 each, devised a fraudulent scheme to get the firms to send these catalogues out on the pretense of entering into negotiations with the senders, with no intent to enter into business relations.

Prominent Men Are Indicted.

The persons named in the indictment are indicted as individuals and not as members of any company or organization. They are: Ralph Burnside, Okaloosa, Fla., president of the Northwestern Lumbermen's association and president of the Hawkeye Lumber company; Willard G. Hollis, Minneapolis, secretary of the Retail Lumbermen's association; George B. Ingram, Seuk Center, Minn., director of the Northwestern Lumbermen's association; Stanley Moore, Waterloo, Ia., director of the Northwestern Lumbermen's association; C. E. Trees, Eldora, Ia., up to last year vice president of the Northwestern Lumbermen's association; N. S. Darling, Oklahoma City, Okla., president of the Oklahoma City sash and door factory; Theodore S. McLaughlin, Minneapolis, general manager of the Phoenix Lumber company; Leonard Welles, Minneapolis, vice president of the North Star Lumber company; George T. Thompson, secretary and treasurer of the North Star Lumber company; Elijah Hutchins, Minneapolis, vice president and active manager of the Central Lumber company; Nesbitt Tate, Minneapolis, president of the Wisconsin Lumber company; James C. Melville, Minneapolis, of the Wisconsin Lumber company; Rufus G. Clark, Minneapolis, general manager of the J. H. Quale Lumber company; D. S. French, Hawarden, Ia., vice president of the J. H. Quale Lumber company; William J. Bruce, Minneapolis, manager Bruce-Edgerton Lumber company; J. W. Lucas, Winona, Minn., president of the Hayes-Lucas Lumber company; O. M. Bettsford, Winona, Minn., general manager Laird-Norton yard, and A. R. Rogers, president, and George H. Rogers, vice president, of the Rogers Lumber company, Minneapolis.

REMARKABLE CONFESSION.

Frenchman Says He Was Hired to Rob Churches.

Paris, Oct. 9.—A great sensation has been caused by the remarkable confession of Antoine Thomas of Clermont-Ferrand, who was arrested with his mother and his brother, charged with complicity in the theft of the famous cope of Orth, which belonged to the state and was valued at $120,000, from the Church of Ambazac, near Limoges.

Thomas, who gave himself up to clear his mother and brother, declares that after the passage of the church and state separation law and the taking of the church inventories began, antiquaries of Paris, some of whom are millionaires, hired him and others to go through the country and bribe the parish priests to surrender the relics and substitute counterfeits which could later be turned over to the state. He says this plan of operation continued for months, but as many of the most valuable church treasures could not be counterfeited, he finally went boldly into the business of wholesale burglary. Thomas estimated the amount of his robberies at $400,000.

Thomas says he sold the cope of Orth to an antiquary of London for $10,000. He further declares that the antiquaries of Paris get rid of their "plunder" in England and America, and announces his intention to make a clean breast of it and expose his accomplices, who have abandoned him.

Another phase of the case is the discovery of letters at the Thomas residence indicating that they had been engaged in the performance of illegal operations upon society women.

M. Samary, a well known antiquary of Paris, said that there was in existence a great syndicate of art thieves engaged in robbing churches and museums all over Europe. All the spoils, he said, were sold to American collectors, who paid such high prices that the risk was well worth the while.

The house of deputies spent the forenoon discussing rules of business and many sharp speeches were made, both by those who favored the proposed rules offered by Mr. Francis Lynde Stetson of New York and by Congressman E. W. Saunders of Virginia, who offered many amendments.

Judge Saunders finally carried his point after prolonged debate, Mr. Stetson accepting his suggestion except in two instances.

A joint session of the two bodies heard Bishop Graves of China, Bishop McKim of Japan and Bishop Brent of the Philippines on the church in the Far East. Bishop Brent caused a sensation by his criticism of the United States in the management of the Philippine Islands.

DISTURBING THE MARKET.

Lord Rothschild Blames President Roosevelt's Speeches.

London, Oct. 9.—The Daily News publishes an interview with Lord Rothschild on the depression of stocks at home and abroad, in the course of which the financier attributes the decline not to the booming of trade, but to the fact that governments all over the world are "hitting" at capital. Among other things, Lord Rothschild instances the prospective British legislation regarding old age pensions, land purchases, etc. Continuing, he says:

"Of course, President Roosevelt's speeches against the conduct of American railroads are disturbing the market greatly. We must all admit that the manipulation of railroad stock in the United States has not always been quite what it should be, but this does not detract from the serious character of the president's campaign. It is difficult, nay, it is almost impossible, as things stand today, for us to furnish from this country fresh capital for railroad development across the water."

H. F. MICHAEL CO.

NOT A BEAR YET SIGHTED

President Roosevelt's Hunt in Louisiana Not Very Successful.

Stamboul, La., Oct. 9.—Secretary Latta returned Tuesday from his visit to the president in the latter's camp on the Tensas river, bringing with him a batch of newly dictated letters and recollections of a very wet night spent in camp. He says that Monday's rain was even more than was bargained for and that while the first effect was to put the woods in good condition, they became so wet by 2 o'clock that the party was compelled to return to camp. The rain which had begun early in the day continued throughout the night and it was decided not to venture out at all owing to the water in the canebrake in which they are hunting. No one has yet sighted a bear, but the dogs found a trail Monday and the professional hunters expressed the belief that from the sound the baying meant that they had located a real bear. It was dark, however, and became necessary to call the hunt off.

The president puts in much of his time when not engaged in the hunt in reading and in conversation with his associates and the guides and hunters who accompany them. Another deer was shot Monday.

THE bank clearances appearing in the papers of the northwest do not indicate any commercial depression in this part of the country.

ALL but nineteen counties in Kentucky have adopted prohibition and the colonels from that state in the other hundred counties are thinking of changing their residences.

OVER in Douglas county a farmer has raised a quantity of coffee which he claims is as good as the article imported. The possibilities of Minnesota are yet in their infancy.

ADVERTISERS should bear in mind that THE DISPATCH will carry your announcement to more readers in Brainerd than any other paper or medium through which advertising is circulated.

TWELVE hundred people at Augusta, Maine, agreed to eat no meat for ten days because the price was tilted, but from last accounts the action did not have the effect of putting the trust out of business.

If St. Cloud will make good on the reported coal discovery in that county there will not be any reason why the ore off the Cuyuna range cannot be manufactured into pig iron and other products right here at home.

THE Duluth News-Tribune in Mary McFadden's column remarks that "mining industries, speculations and promises are rife around Brainerd. Crow Wing county is sure of its great future, but is anxious that its period of affluence be hastened." Sure thing.

JOHNSON doesn't care if the Illinois democrats are in favor of Bryan and says so, in fact he says he doesn't know whether he will be a candidate for the presidential nomination or not, but thinks not, and rather expects that Bryan will head the democratic ticket in 1908.

It is said that one of the Frenchmen was beaten almost to death and a crowbar was rammed into his mouth and that he was robbed of his watch and money. The other Frenchman was beaten, but not so badly, and robed of $18.

The alleged culprits were five of a gang of thirty that were working at surfacing on the Wisconsin Central railway in Minnesota near the bridge that crosses the St. Croix six miles above this city. The five, including the foreman, struck Monday, went to Somerset and were drinking.

Several people on the street saw the attack, but were afraid to interfere when a display of guns was made, and the assailants escaped.

Contest limited to those pupils now enrolled in the office of the county superintendent.

The exhibits taking first prizes will be exhibited in the state contest in St. Paul in December.

Competent judges will be present to award the premiums. The exhibit will be free to all who may be interested enough to attend.

Contestants should preserve the paper containing this notice, as it will not appear again, nor will special notices be sent out. Further information may be had by calling at the office of the county superintendent on Saturday, Oct. 12th.

IDEAL IDEAS

Some of the Ideal people took in the fair at Pine River last week.

Mrs. C. E. Gibson, Mrs. E. W. Johnson and Mrs. L. O. Johnson made a trip to Pequot Saturday.

Mr. Peterson, of Superior, is visiting her brother at present.

The Kimball Lake school was opened last Monday with Miss Kling as teacher.

A. L. Bratt, representing the Watkins remedy, was seen in this vicinity last week.

Donald Meenach was visiting in Ideal Sunday.

We are pleased to hear that Willie Spornitz is rapidly recovering from an injury.

Mrs. Alyea, of Mayo Brook, was visiting friends in this part of the country last week.

Mrs. C. Stanley made a business trip to Brainerd last week.

W. C. T. U. Meeting

The meeting of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Walters Tuesday afternoon and evening was very enthusiastic. After the business session a report of the state convention was given by the district president, who was a delegate from this union.

The report was given in a very interesting and clear manner bringing to the local union the proceedings of the state union so understandably that it almost seemed as if we had all attended the state convention.

A hearty vote of thanks was given to our delegate, Mrs. A. R. Holman for her good report.

The members of our union were saddened by the announcement that our beloved president, Mrs. M. N. Rhodes is to leave us for a sojourn in the warmer climate of California for the coming winter. We will miss her from our circle and hope for her return to health and to us. A most bountiful supper was served by the hostess, assisted by her niece, Mrs. Budd. We all left the pleasant home of Mr. and Mrs. Walters feeling that it had been good and profitable for us to be there. * * *

BEARS ARE VERY PLENTY THIS FALL

Three Were Brought Into Brainerd Within Twenty-Four Hours and Others Seen

G. W. HESS SLAYER OF ONE
John Anderson, of Maple Grove, Got Mother Bear and One of Three Cubs

Bears seem plenty and tame this season. It is something unusual for them to come out into the open in broad day light, yet three were killed yesterday, all of which seemed to have courted death. John Anderson, of Maple Grove, brought in an old she bear and one cub yesterday, which he sold to E. C. Bane. When first seen the mother bear was in a tree shaking down acorns to her three cubs, who were on the ground below. Mr. Anderson, who was digging potatoes, saw them and went to a neighbors and secured a gun and returned to the spot. They were still there and he shot the mother bear, knocking her out of the tree. He then shot one of the cubs, killing it, and then killed the mother, who had been wounded by the first shot. The other two cubs escaped but his sons were searching for them yesterday.

Geo. W. Hess, the barber, was equally lucky. He started out with one of the stage drivers yesterday morning and when near Merrifield saw a good sized bear in a field heading for the woods. George got out of the rig and ran around the field, headed his carriage off and dispatched him with a shot from his repeating shot gun. George then boarded the stage with his game and took it to Merrifield, bringing it in today.

Cured Hay Fever and Summer Cold

A. J. Naushbaum, Batesville, Indiana, writes: "Last year I suffered for three months with a summer cold so distressing that it interfered with my business. I had many of the symptoms of hay fever, and a doctor's prescription did not reach my case, and I took several medicines which seemed to only aggravate my case. Fortunately I insisted upon having Foley's Honey and Tar in the yellow package, and it quickly cured me. My wife has since used Foley's Honey and Tar with the same success. For sale by H. P. STRIKE BREAKERS ASSAULTED

Men who had Quit the Shops Attacked and Chased through the Streets

About twenty men who have been working in the boiler shops were discharged or quit last night and some of them who were going to leave on the midnight train were attacked by a crowd of strike sympathizers near the depot. Either their grips were taken away from them or they were scared and dropped them, but at any rate the remains of a couple of grips were strung along the track. Two of them were chased down Front street and into the Globe hotel. The crowd demanded that Landlord John Wise turn them out, which he refused to do and warned the pursuers that the men were under his protection while in his house and that they must not be molested. The crowd heeded the advice and dispersed and the men left for the twin cities this morning.

PELICAN CREEK RIFLES

T. E. Smith came up on the Cross Lake stage today to see about exchanging some city property for a farm in our locality.

Geo. Cline threshed out some of the finest winter wheat we have ever seen in this part of the country, large plump berry. A friend of his sent the seed from Nebraska.

Cattle buyers have been around here for the last two weeks picking up all the cattle they could get hold of. Good cattle brought a very good price.

Geo. Fletcher came down from Emily last week with his steamer and threshed out the grain around here. Wheat was good, but the acre average was small, going from eleven to sixteen bushels. Oats were light all over the state and we are no exception. Corn is very good and all matured before the frost.

A. C. Gould is about the same as he has been all summer, still he got around to pick his plums and apples this fall and to see that his threshing was going off right.

Mrs. A. T. Kimball and son Ami have gone to Winona for a month's visit with friends and relatives. Her brother that had been up here for the last month accompanied her. Cod says he is going to stay at home and take in all the dances to play even.

CONG. LINDBERGH'S WORK

He Has Visited Nearly Every Portion of the District in Response to Invitations

The Little Falls Transcript says: The people of the Sixth district have seen much of their congressman during the past few weeks. The new member, Hon. C. A. Lindbergh, returned to his home here Saturday after filling the last speaking date he had agreed to fill before he leaves for Washington. He had, during about two months, accepted invitations from all parts of the district, and addressed the people in one or more places in nearly every county. He attended G. A. R. encampments, county fairs, market days and other public assemblies. He gave much time to these calls upon him, but he could not accept all the invitations, as the district is rather extensive.

From all reports received, the people of the district were well pleased by the novelty of having their congressman meet with them during an off political year, and discuss public questions. Mr. Lindbergh wants the people to understand what his views are on public matters, and is equally desirous of obtaining the opinions of all the people.

This tour of the congressman has enabled the people to better judge of him when he is not employed in trying to defeat an antagonist for the nomination or election. Such an acquaintance cannot fail to convince many more people of the sterling qualities and high abilities of the congressman.

GETS INFERNAL MACHINE

Governor of Colorado Receives Deadly Dynamite Bomb.

Denver, Oct. 9.—Governor Henry A. Buchtel, David H. Moffat, president of the First National bank of Denver, and Charles B. Kountze, president of the Colorado National bank, received through the mails Tuesday infernal machines containing sufficient dynamite to have caused great destruction of lives and property had they been exploded. Fortunately warning had been given to the recipients of the machines before they were received by Chief of Police Michael Delaney, who had wrested a confession from Kemp Bigelow, by whom they were mailed.

Bigelow confessed also that he had sent infernal machines to Lawrence C. Phipps and Edward Chase, but these were not delivered Tuesday. The machines received by Moffat and Kountze were turned over to the police department. The one sent to Governor Buchtel was received by the governor's private secretary, Alfred C. Montgomery, who removed the wrapper, disclosing a box with a sliding cover. His suspicions were aroused and he reported the matter to Governor Buchtel, who then informed him that he had been warned by the chief of police to be on the lookout for an infernal machine.

Adjutant General Kelley and officers of the police department were called in and the box was carefully opened by them in such a manner as to avoid exploding its contents. It was found to contain two sticks of dynamite to which were attached fuses and caps and which were packed in black powder. The sliding top was lined with sand paper and matches had been placed with their heads in contact with the sand paper so that they would have been ignited if the box had been opened in the manner intended, thus causing an explosion of the dynamite. The other infernal machines were counterparts of this one.

Bigelow made a confession in which he admitted sending the infernal machines and explained his motive. He said that he was unable to earn enough at his regular

GREAT GAME OF BALL

Detroit and Chicago Teams in Prolonged Struggle.

TWELVE INNINGS TO A TIE

Darkness Puts an End to the Strenuous First Contest of the Series for the World's Championship—Large Crowd Witnesses the Game.

Chicago, Oct. 9.—Detroit and Chicago, leaders of the American and National leagues, respectively, played twelve strenuous innings to a tie here Tuesday in the first game of the series for the baseball championship of the world. The contest was replete with sensational situations and when Umpire O'Day of the National league called the play off on account of darkness most of the 24,377 spectators sighed with relief and went home well satisfied with the outcome.

Overall and Donovan were the opposing pitchers, but the former was taken out when Chicago had tied the score in the ninth inning and had men on bases waiting to score the winning runs. Moran was sent in to bat for him, but before the latter had time to deliver the needed hit Evers tried to steal home and was out by a narrow margin, retiring the side. Ruellie finished the game and for three innings retired Detroit's heavy hitters without the semblance of a hit. The work of all the pitchers was first class, but Donovan had a shade on his rivals in that he struck out twelve of the opposing batsmen. His second base on balls was costly, but with good support he would have won his game.

The contest was watched by an immense crowd. Close to 24,500 persons crowded into the park, the enlarged stands being packed to their capacity, while a thin fringe of enthusiasts occupied standing room in deep center field. Whatever ground rules may have been formulated were not in evidence, as none of the nineteen hits went outside the playing space. The stands were built close up to the foul lines and all around the field except in deep right field, where the space was left open. Captain Chance of Chicago having been fearful lest Detroit's star batmen should drive the ball into the seats in that section. As it turned out only one hit went in the direction and it fell far short of the barrier.

Crowd Was Good Natured.

The game was called at 2:39 o'clock, but four hours before that time long lines of would-be spectators were besieging the gates and good naturedly struggling to be first through the turnstiles so as to secure points of vantage. It was an extremely good natured crowd, remarkable for its spirit of fair play and courtesy and the half hundred police had no trouble at all in keeping it within bounds.

The game was evenly contested. Both teams broke under fire. Chicago mixing two of its errors with two hits in the eighth inning when Detroit scored all three of its runs, while the visitors returned the compliment in the next inning, allowing Chicago to tie the score. Captain Coughlin's error came in this round and was costly. With runners on first and second he let an easy grounder from Evers' bat get away from him, filling the bases. After that two runs came across, one on a passed ball, Schmidt failing to hold Howard's third strike.

While this was going on Overall retired from the game and when the visitors went to bat in the extra innings they had to face Reulbach's speedy delivery in the growing darkness. The tall pitcher was in rare form, having good control and against his curves and shoots such batsmen as Schaefer, Crawford and Cobb were helpless.

Tyrus Cobb, Detroit's right fielder, was presented with a huge gold medal set with diamonds as a reward for leading the American league in batting in the season just closed. He did not get a hit in Tuesday's game.

The receipts for the game totalled $29,162.50, which will be divided as follows: To the players, $15,747.75; to the owners, $10,498, and to the national commission $2,916.75.

DEMANDING RECIPROCITY.

Resolutions Adopted by American Meek Packers at Chicago.

Chicago, Oct. 9.—The second annual convention of the American Meat Packers' association was brought to a close with the adoption of resolutions demanding that the next congress of the United States adopt a reciprocity law that would afford American shippers a market in every port of the world and provide an outlet for surplus products.

After selecting Chicago as the place for the convention in 1908, the following officers were elected:

President, J. S. Agar, Chicago; vice president, B. W. Corkran, Baltimore; secretary, G. L. McCarthy, New York; treasurer, J. L. Roth, Cincinnati.

Asks Heavy Damages.

Duluth, Oct. 9.—Claiming that the United States Steel corporation and Sheriff Bates entered into a conspiracy to depelize guards during the recent strike who were not citizens and not responsible persons John Mozer of Chisholm has brought suit for $5,000 against both the sheriff and the company. Mozer had his hat shot off during the strike while driving along the street.

So reliable is Mi-o-na in its curative action that H. P. Dunn, with every 50-cent box he sells, gives guarantee to refund the money unless the remedy does all that is claimed for it.

BATTLESHIP IS FLOATED.
Believed That the Kentucky Has Not Been Damaged.

Norfolk, Va., Oct. 9.—With the assistance of seven powerful tugs the battleship Kentucky, which stranded off Lambert's Point Tuesday morning while endeavoring to avoid a possible collision with vessels lying at anchor in the stream waiting to take on coal, was floated at 10:05 Tuesday night.

It was 2 o'clock in the morning when the Kentucky stranded and the combined efforts of six of the most powerful tugs failed to float the vessel.

At high tide Tuesday night the Merritt & Chapman tug Rescue went to the battleship's assistance and the Kentucky was pulled into deep water and headed under her own steam for the navy yard.

The grounding of the Kentucky will be investigated by the usual board of inquiry. It is not thought the Kentucky sustained any damage.

Three Passengers Hurt.

Merrillan, Wis., Oct. 9.—A bad wreck occurred a few miles south of here on the Northwestern road when the Duluth Limited on that line left the track and five cars were thrown in the ditch. Only three passengers were hurt and only one of them seriously. W. H. Nichols of Chicago was thrown against the arm of a seat in the chair car and another passenger was thrown on top of him. He was badly bruised about the legs, arms and face and it is thought he received internal injuries.

Engineer and Fireman Killed.

Sioux City, Ia., Oct. 8.—A Milwaukee freight train and switch engine collided at Mitchell, S. D., and Engineer Dennis L. Sumner of Sioux City and Fireman Welland of Yankton were killed. It was Welland's second trip.
